

Q2 Participation Rubric

Weight of assessment in final grade: 10%

Type of assessment: individual

Evaluator: Hegias

	Learning outcomes (numbers based on overall outcomes)	Criteria	Fail	Pass	Comments
Communication	1.e. Apply interview and listening strategies.	Participates in class	Student has not participated once during Friday symposia.	Student has participated more than once during Friday symposia.
		Quality of comments	Comments are uninformative, lacking in appropriate terminology. Heavy reliance on opinion & personal taste, e.g., "I love it", "I hate it", "It's bad" etc.	Comments are insightful & constructive; uses appropriate terminology. Comments balanced between general impressions, opinions & specific, thoughtful criticisms or contributions.
		Listening skills	Does not listen to others; regularly talks while others speak or does not pay attention while others speak; detracts from discussion; sleeps, etc.	Student listens attentively when others present materials, perspectives, as indicated by comments that build on others' remarks, i.e., student hears what others say & contributes to the dialogue
		Formulate questions	Questions are often irrelevant, unclear and shallow, resulting in disengagement and disinterest during the meeting.	Questions are relevant, clear and thought-provoking. They actively engage participants, fostering enthusiasm, interest and in-depth discussion.
Collaboration	2.e. Provide constructive feedback and show openness to feedback from others.	Providing and receiving feedback	Student rarely provides constructive feedback and is often closed to feedback from peers.	Student provides constructive feedback and is open to feedback from peers.
Research	3.i. Able to identify, integrate and analyse current knowledge about a topic including from multiple sources, perspectives and methodologies.	Knowledge	Student struggles to identify, integrate and critically assess knowledge during symposia.	Student is able to identify, integrate and analyse knowledge during symposia.	